Info. & support for all issues are at ETFsectorfundinvesting.com. Todays "buy" %'s are based on FSSF close prices for dates of alpha*plus* calls to buy/sell. 12 ETF sectors are highlited and an asterisk is next to sector name.

Entry into the 12 ETF system (opt.1 & 3) requires purchase of 12 equal $$ amounts. Each is referred to as a buy or unit.

...Reading the Daily Summary ...

- 1 Emphasizes that the data used for alpha plus are Fidelity Inv. select sector funds (FSSF) closing prices. ETFsectorfundinvesting.com opt.1 & 3 advises buying equivelent ETFs (col. D ).
- shows the 12 sectors that the alphaplus system recomends (colored yellow w/* adjacent to name.
- 3 Indicates IN or OUT of the market & % short.
- These columns provide the daily data, weekly, etc., etc, percentage share gain or loss for each sector.
- displays buy or sell info. (will repeat buy info after initial buy when positive criteria are met).
- These columns track the gain or loss for each of the buy/sell calls made by alpha plus. The percent and weeks are calculated from the price on the date of "buy" to the date of this summary.
- Tentries in the current buy col. indicate sectors in buy mode & shows daily status of the option 1. investment method.
- Option 1 & 3 requires 12 buy units when IN. If less than 12 sectors are in buy mode, add additnl buys of 1/2 ea. spy & qqq to equal 12 buy units.
- When the composite box is OUT, option 1 & 3 requires a short position in the % of total fiolio value shown in the short box, (1/2 ea. in SH, SDS).
- Indicates how many sectors are in buy mode and if less than 12 how many buy units are to be invested 1/2 ea.,in SPY-QQQ or if short, how many buy units are to be invested 1/2 ea.,in SH-SDS.
- This info is for reference only. There are many criteria that must be met before an OUT sig. appears in F2, an important one is: the sp500 loss from its 40 day high must be greater than -7.7%. At the same time, the Nasdaq loss from its 45 day high must be greater than -6.6%, before an OUT signal can be called. These are early indicators of a market decline that may be nearing an alpha plus OUT signal.
- 12 Daily short term rank of sectors that are in buy mode.
